Procurement Policy

Muangthai Capital Public Company Limited places great importance on procurement, which is a crucial process that supports the operations and business of the Company in a sustainable manner by building confidence in stakeholders through excellent, transparent, fair, and ethical procurement practices. The Company has established a procurement policy as follows:

1. The Company conducts procurement efficiently and effectively based on criteria considering quality, price, service quantity, as well as taking into account responsibility towards the economy, society, and environment.
2. The Company conducts procurement transparently, fairly, and in compliance with relevant laws and regulations.
3. The Company treats all suppliers and contractors equally, providing complete, accurate, and sufficient information.
4. The Company conducts procurement considering the economic, social, and environmental impacts (ESG).
5. The Company has a policy to combat corruption and adheres strictly to anti-corruption practices by opposing corruption in all forms, both directly and indirectly. Failure to comply with the anti-corruption policy may result in legal action against suppliers or contractors.
6. The Company prohibits its employees from giving or receiving gifts, hospitality, entertainment, or any other benefits, both directly and indirectly.
7. The Company provides an opportunity for all stakeholders to report any violations of the above policy through the whistleblowing channel.

In this regard, the Board of Directors, management, and all employees have a responsibility to support, promote, and adhere to the procurement management policy and framework diligently.
